A photograph of a spa treatment station. In the center, a pink basket holds several rolled-up white towels. To the left and right of the basket are black ceramic bowls filled with water, each sitting on a pink napkin. Behind the towels are two pink stands, each holding several bottles of nail polish in various colors. Above the stands are three silver steamers. The entire setup is on a black table covered with a zebra-print cloth. The background is a dark wood wall.
